

Women of Moose Member Drive Set; Schedule Events

The card party held last Wednesday was a successful affair. Nice handmade prizes were given, all donated by the Child Care Committee, Velma Scanlon, chairman.

The daytime pot luck was held at the Los Angeles home of Ruth Kiel. The next daytime pot luck will be held at the home of Home-Making Chairman Rosy Shepard.

First regular meeting of the new year was an interesting session when reports were made by the various committees.

A special membership drive will be conducted during the next three months. The goal of the Women of the Moose in the United States by National Conference time in August is 175,000.

Moose Pal exchange and evening pot luck will be at the home of Velma Scanlon Wednesday evening, Jan. 19. All co-workers are urged to be present, according to Mary Caltrini, publicity chairman.

'Born Yesterday' Comedy Hit to Open at Biltmore

Beginning Monday, Jan. 17 at the Biltmore Theatre, theatergoers will see Garson Kanin's world-wide American comedy hit, "Born Yesterday," starring Jean Parker and Lon Chaney, talented stars of stage and cinema.

Produced by Max Gordon, "Born Yesterday" has a record of three years on Broadway, nine months in Chicago, five months in Boston, and was successfully presented on stages in Norway, France, England, Argentina and Australia.

This flip and fluent comedy tells a humorous tale of Harry Brock, roughneck junk dealer who moves into Washington with larceny in his heart and Uncle Sam for his intended victim, only to be routed by his "dumb" girl friend and a crusading reporter.

There will be matinees on Wednesdays and Saturdays, and this comedy hit will be presented nightly including Sundays.

Card Party

Mrs. Martha Moffitt will serve as chairman for this evening's Catholic card party in Nativity Hall, Cota at Manuel ave.

Assisting with party arrangements will be Mmes. Moeller, Clayton, Chicoine, Cochran, Wilken, Young, Lewellen, Dietlin, Ames, Boos, Hoffmann, Briggs, McBrean and Kristufek.

Presentation of the door prize will be made at 8 o'clock and games of contract and auction bridge, pinocle and 500 will follow. At the close of play dainty refreshments will be served by the hostess committee.

Gay Party Is Enjoyed

Gaily welcoming the new year at a party held in the Presidential suite of the Wilton Hotel in Long Beach were the Gables of Torrance and their guests.

Elaborate hors d'oeuvres were arranged on an appropriately decorated buffet table. Dancing and celebrating continued until the breakfast hour. The early morning meal was served at a Long Beach restaurant.

Guests and members present at the party were Messrs. and Mmes. Fred Smith, Clair Johnson, Ed Mims, Ed Hatter, Jack Norris, Paul Harestad, Francis Lehr, Paul Deutschman, D. R. Edward, D. B. Randolph and Robert Kelsey.

CHAMBER CONCERTS BEING PRESENTED AT COUNTY MUSEUM

The Koldofsky Piano Quartet is scheduled to present the third program in the winter series of weekly concerts of chamber music at the Los Angeles County Museum in Exposition Park on Sunday, January 16 at 3 p.m. No admission is charged.

Artists in the quartet are Gwendolyn Williams, piano; Adolph Koldofsky, violin; Cecil Igeiski, viola; Kurt Reher, cello, and Clayton Wilson, oboe.

Music by Beethoven, Mozart and Gabriel Faure will be played.

The concert which ends February 27, are under the supervision of the education division of the Museum in collaboration with the County Board of Supervisors.

LECTURE SERIES IS SPONSORED BY HARBOR AREA PTA's

A series of talks by Dr. David H. Dingilian, coordinator for Admencement Service of Los Angeles City Board of Education, arranged for Dana Strand auditorium on Hawaiian avenue, Wilmington, began Jan. 11 under the auspices of Parent-Teacher associations in the harbor area.

All P.T.A. members as well as the general public are urged to take advantage of this lecture series.

Dr. Dingilian's first lecture was titled "How Grown Up Are We?"

Continuing Jan. 18 the subject will be "Dependents and Independents"; on Jan. 25, "Personality Development"; Feb. 1, "Your Youngster's Future"; and the last, Feb. 8, "Spiritual Values in Human Relations."

Dr. Dingilian has been highly recommended and every effort should be made to hear the entire series, Parent-Teacher leaders state.

MARCH OF DIMES CAMPAIGN TO BE ON PTA SCHEDULE

Tenth District P.T.A. is alerting its many thousands of members to watch for the colorful March of Dimes parade in mid-January. Collections will be taken at the parade for this great humanitarian drive whose kindly hand helps poliomyelitis victims.

Full period of the drive is to be Jan. 15 to 30. Recent victims of infantile paralysis know first-hand of the great generosity, the real help-in-time-of-need made possible by this fund.

Tenth District P.T.A. is glad to report it and its many councils and unit associations will support the drive. Assisting with this work will be members of Halldale, Lomita Elementary, Orange Street and Harbor City associations.

LIONESS CLUB TO HEAR TALK ON DECORATING

Torrance Lioness Club will meet Tuesday, Jan. 18, at 8:00 o'clock. As it is a social, they will have as their guest speaker Mrs. K. Katich of San Pedro, an interior decorator. Mrs. Katich will augment her talk with a demonstration of color schemes and suggest novel ideas for redecorating members' homes.

Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting. Hostesses will be Mesdames Kay Jakubowski, Sara Isen and Miriam Ashton.

Baby Receives Welcome at Home of Fred Bunge

Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Bunge, 4904 Galeano avenue, Long Beach welcomed their second son Friday, Jan. 7. He arrived at Los Angeles maternity home weighing 7 pounds 12 ounces. The little fellow has been named David Warren Bunge.

Their first son, Frederick Earl, is 2 years old.

Mr. Bunge, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Bunge, received his education in Lomita and is a graduate of Narbonne High School.

WINTER VACATIONERS

John and James Ferguson of Joliet, Ill., recently returned to their homes following a visit with their mother, Mrs. Ruth Davis, of 1628 W. 204th street.

Tea will be served at the close of the meeting.

WALLENSTEIN TO PROGRAM NOVEL SYMPHONIC WORKS

Two soloists will be heard with the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra for its eighth pair of concerts Thursday night at 8:30 and Friday afternoon at 2:15, January 20th and 21st in Philharmonic Auditorium. Music Director Alfred Wallenstein has programmed the Ibert and Falla numbers, Wallenstein will conduct George Antheil's "McKonkey's Ferry," the first symphony by Robert Schumann and Moussorgsky's lively Khovantchina prelude.

George Antheil, now a resident of Los Angeles, based his overture on the historic crossing of the Delaware by George Washington.

Miss Andonian, a native Los Angeles girl of Armenian parentage, is a protegee and student of Nina Koshetz, famous Russian diva.

Drexler was born in Rochester, New York and was graduated from the Eastman School of Music of that City.

In addition to the Ibert and

PARTICIPATE IN RED CROSS WORK

With 10 colleges and universities participating in Red Cross activities through organized units on the campuses, college students greatly contributed to the overall year's achievement of the Los Angeles chapter. Proving the mainstay of the hospital party program, 2000 college coeds served as hostesses at the informal gatherings for veteran patients. One of the newest programs in which college students participated was the Blood Service, with a total of six Blood Mobile visits to local campuses scheduled.
